—BY—

Train & Co's Line.

ENOCH TRAIN & CO., Proprietors of the Boston and Liverpool Line of Packets, hereby give notice that they have made extensive arrangements with the Western Rail Road Corporations, in connection with the Rail Roads in the Western States, and Steamboats on the Lakes, for the forwarding of pre-paid passengers from Boston to the Canadas and Western States; and are now selling at their office in Boston, and at their authorized agencies, pre paid certificates of passage as follows:

" " St. Louis, Mo.,	28 00
" " Milwaukee, Wis.,	25 00

Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Splendid Line of Packets; provisions at sea according to the undermentioned dietary scale; deck accommodations and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steerage passenger of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two oz. of Tea; 8oz. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2¼ lbs navy bread; 1 lb. wheat flour; 2 lbs rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants,) are furnished with six pounds of bread stuffs per week, the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of prepaid passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid certificate, either directly or through our agents.

ENOCH TRAIN & CO., of Boston, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of immigrants, that as carriers of the only LIVERPOOL and BOSTON LINE of PACKETS, they have determined that their Immigration business shall be conducted in their own name, on their own responsibility, and by themselves or their immediate servants.

In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we believe that its general reputation as the first of American Packets is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the rapid and successful passages made by those Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort and Safety which their passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of them will be recognized as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

Packed Ships which are dispatched in this LINE:

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

Train & Co., Merchants, No. 5 India Buildings, Water St., Liverpool, Eng.
Train & Co.'s Passage Office, Nos. 118 & 119, Waterloo Road, Liverpool, Eng.
Train & Co., No. 121 St. Patrick Street, Cork, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are ALL AMERICAN BUILT and constructed expressly for the Trade. They are all NEW and of the FIRST Class, being built on the most improved principles and of the best materials. They possess all the modern improvements which conduce to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence.

The Captains have been carefully selected as first-rate sailors and men of humanity, and an experienced Surgeon is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and most popular conveyance to America. As Train & Co. have made such arrangements in Liverpool as will protect friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practiced there, they believe that those who prepay passages cannot but see the advantages of being able to engage with a Responsible House, on favorable terms, for a well known Line of Magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which they so often experience, when they engage with Agents who are but slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles uniformly liberal and Humane, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfilment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the very Rev. THEOBALD MATHEW, Cork, Ireland.

We also subjoin the following testimonial from the Right Reverend JOHN BERNARD FITZPATRICK, D. D., Bishop, Cathedral, Boston.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over two thousand copies, which is constantly and rapidly increasing. Advertisements put in the Weekly at the same rates as in the Daily.

All Advertisements appear in the Tri-Weekly Sentinel without additional charge.

Price of the Daily $6.00, of the Tri-Weekly $3,00 and of the Weekly $1.00 per year, payable in advance.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature did nothing on Friday beyond what was mentioned in our telegraph report of Saturday morning. The vote in the Assembly prohibiting debate on Friday and Saturday—or rather giving preference on those days to business which does not elicit debate—enabled that body to travel through the file in committee of the whole, and to carry to an engrossment numerous bills of no importance to the public generally.

Among the bills of general interest which were laid aside, besides the liquor bill and swamp-land bill, was the one (No. 123) which provides a new system of assessment and taxation for the state. We are glad to see that the members appear to appreciate fully the importance of this subject, and hope that they will not separate until they have perfected and passed such a bill as will do away with the evils under which Wisconsin suffers in relation to taxation. If it is necessary to prolong the session a week or two in doing this, our state will yet be a great gainer by it.

The Nebraska resolutions are in order for a third reading, but of course were laid over on Friday and Saturday. They come up this morning, and as the minority threaten another fight, and the rules allow the minority to rule supreme, they can effect considerable delay. It is quite probable, however, that a few members, who on Thursday voted against these resolutions, will not be willing to aid the minority in staving off action, lest that there will thus be less time occupied in the discussion than would otherwise be the case.

The rules of the Assembly require a vote of three-fifths (50 out of 82) to call the previous question, two-thirds (45) to suspend or amend a rule, and a majority of all the members elect (42) to suspend proceeding under a call of the House; so that it will be easily seen that a small minority can do pretty much as they please in trying the patience of the majority.—There is little doubt that these rules were so arranged with express reference to the Liquor Law, and the majority adopted them, as they came from the Committee, without a full understanding of their operation, when put in practice. We are inclined to think that there will be a sharp contest on the question of amending these rules some of these days.

From Madison.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

Madison, Feb. 16.

It will be seen that Mr. Brown's reputation and action are somewhat involved in the matter of issue—which Mr. A. F. Pratt insists upon making an issue—between himself and him, and that my silence may by some be construed into acquiescence in what he says, I should most certainly not allude to it again, and I shall make but short work of it now. The Wisconsin's correspondent, then, made an implied, if not express, charge of fraud on Mr. Brown's part, and further said that Mr. B's personal account, aside from his per diem, was "about $2800." Mr. Brown thought himself injured by the publication, and after some conversation with him, and some members of the Investigating Committee, I wrote as follows:

"I do not notice this to raise any issue between the correspondent and myself, but simply to say, as I do from the lips of the chairman and others of the committee, at the request of Mr. Brown, that whoever has circulated such reports relative to him and his accounts, the committee have not done so, and the chairman expressly disclaims all imputation of fraud. As to the charges in Brown's account, he invites investigation into them, and makes no concealment of any. The correctness of the story told in the Wisconsin may be judged from the fact that instead of Mr. Brown's personal account being "about $2,800," it is $1,400."

Mr. Pratt pretends to sustain his assertion by an array of figures, which show him to be wrong, since, out of the aggregate of $2,666,56, of Mr. Brown's account, it shows the personal account and per diem to be $1,186,56. Mr. Pratt adds;

Again: he says that he received his information from the lips of the chairman. I will answer the letter by saying that I am authorized by that gentleman to say that he has never had any conversation with Mr. Watson upon the subject.

In relating to this, I only ask the perusal of the following, which Mr. Lees has given me this morning:

"I was chairman of the Assembly's committee to visit the State Prison, (although not chairman of the joint committee) I had a conversation with Mr. Watson, in which I stated that there was no imputation of fraud, and that the committee had not made any such statement. Mr. M. J. Thomas, another of the committee, was present, and agreed with me. Mr. Brown was also present."

E. LEES."

The bill organizing the 8th Judicial Circuit, by division of the Northwestern counties of Chippewa, Dunn, Pierce, Polk, St. Croix, La Pointe, and Douglas from the 6th Circuit, has passed both Houses, and will doubtless speedily become a law. The election is to be held on the 4th Monday in September next, (unless the time is changed by the operation of the law which is on its way to a 3d reading in Senate, having already passed the House, calling all Judicial elections upon the annual town meeting day). I suppose that La Pointe and Douglas counties could scarcely hear of their new condition before that time.

The morning session of the Assembly was pretty much wasted by calls of the house and other motions for delay, no opposition to an attempt to take up the liquor bill, the Speaker deciding that the suspension of the rules last evening fell with the adjournment.

In the afternoon, there was a long discussion on the appropriation to the State Agricultural Society, in which some very remarkable things were said, the Speaker and Elder Lake opposing the measure, and Mr. Worthington leading off in its defence. Mr. Lake's argument was summed up in his remark—"if a man hasn't got common sense, then give him books."

By the way, I have seen a copy of the forth, coming Volume of Transactions of the Society and I venture to say that it will compare favorably with any volume of the kind yet issued by any of our Agricultural Societies, being full of instruction derived from the experience of practical farmers, illustrated, well-arranged, and handsomely printed, by the state printer. It does credit to Wisconsin.

In Senate, a bill has been introduced making provision for paying extra clerk, hire in the State Treasurer's office. It is absolutely necessary, as any one knows who sees the press of business in that office. But how much longer is the State Treasurer to receive the miserable pittance of $600, as a salary for taking charge of funds and accounts to the amount of $350,000, giving the while a bond of $100,000?

Friday, Feb. 17, 9 A. M.—Thermometer 6° below zero this morning. Fridays and Saturdays not being debatable days, the liquor bill and Nebraska resolutions must rest. W. H. W.

ACCIDENT AT JANESVILLE.—On Saturday afternoon, a cutter containing a man and one or two children was run over by a stage, and the man considerably bruised. We understand that the company immediately, through their agent, came forward and settled the matter amicably.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Ralph Waldo Emerson.

On Monday evening, Emerson delivered his lecture on "Culture" to a large and brilliant audience of Clergymen, Editors, Ladies, Doctors, Lawyers, Merchants and Working men; holders of all shades of opinion, down even to our modern wizards, the spirit rappers; and all seemed to listen with evident interest and pleasure to the famous essayist. Being a working man myself I confess I could ill spare the quarter for admittance, in fact it was borrowed; yet if it had been ten times the paltry sum, I would have tried as many plans before I had been deprived of hearing this great man, whose writings I used to read and re-read on the other side of the world and admire them more and more with every last perusal.

And yet, strange to say, at the conclusion of last night's lecture, with the tones of his voice still in my ear, and his fine intellectual and heroic head in my vision, I thought what I now write, that the production we had listened to was a huge fallacy set in gems of truth; a wrong argument, enriched and made beautiful by rare and quaint comparisons; a bad picture in a golden frame; a pernicious book in bindings of rich velvet and morocco—or anything else false in itself with excellent clothes on its back. I will not attempt to begin at the beginning of his discourse and go thro' with it; but that will not signify, for every sentence being complete and able to stand alone, the whole lecture might be read backward and be just as good. Those present must have noticed that he could stop at any part, and his subject appeared as much finished as when he did finish; I am of the belief that we did not get the whole of it.

The lecture here and elsewhere has been noticed in the highest terms, and he who refuses to be an echo may expect to be considered illiberal and narrow minded; but I have learned too much from the lecturer himself to be disturbed by any such opinions.

It may be said, too, that his subject was intellectual culture mainly; but intellect can never be the basis of education; and, tho' he might not dwell upon it, it was necessary to recognize something to build upon, for with such a heavy subject as the culture of an immortal soul it will be found a sad mistake to build without a foundation. Intellectual power is no more than a spear placed in the hand—it may pierce a noxious animal, or murder a brother.

"Nature," he says "sacrifices the individual for his work." And that the office of culture is to restore the equilibrium of the man, by restraining the poetic faculty of the poet, the artistic faculty of the artist, or other predominant dispositions of the mind, that nature may not destroy the man for the production of his genius. That it were much better to have worse temples and statues and pictures and books, and have equipoised and healthy men.

He thinks that good society, that skating, fishing and shooting are good, not for themselves but for something more valuable which may be learned along with them; and that the best or chief good of a College education is to convince the student that it is worth nothing. Peddling he admires for boys; and traveling to London, Paris, or Naples, is excellent for taking the nonsense out of a man. His remarks on the cowardice of those who coddle themselves and sit over the register—and the miserable craving for sympathy that pulls the lint out of its sores, that some one may pity and console them—on the pretension of our American youth—on Monomaniacs, such as Graham dietists, &c. were good and salutary.

But after many good anecdotes and illustrations he closes his lecture by acknowledging that he does not see among all the various plans of education proposed in the present age, one fit for the accomplishment of the end; but hopes largely in the future, which is to produce (spontaneously, I suppose,) perfect and well balanced men and women; that as the earth's strata, and the various gradations of animated nature, whose remains are found in, and peculiar to each, has come step by step—the lowest first—we may expect perfection by and by.

I do not give his exact words, writing from a poor memory; nor a tenth of what he said, but I believe I keep by the spirit and meaning.

In all the lecture there was not one recognition of Christianity as the foundation culture any more than if it had been a Pagan speaker and a Pagan audience. Indeed one of his assertions was that religion was the flowering of the individual, the fruit of culture; thereby making man the maker of religion; it being merely a natural product, as wool or cotton, may be elaborated into a garment to keep out the cold. The majority of his hearers I hope have been in the habit of looking on religion as something supernatural, something sent by beneficient Providence to lift mankind out of Paganism and Naturalism, grafting upon the brutish stock the bud of heavenly culture; that man, changed and purified by this divine influence might regain, through toil and sorrow in this world, an Eden more fair than the one lost by his first parent. But Emerson, not believing in the fall of man, and having pierced with his keen eye through the imperfections of men, and the nothingness of this life, with daring impiety in one of his essays says, "there is a crack in every thing that God has made." And in the face of this lecture on culture and all his hopes of the perfectability of man upon earth stands his own words "that the highest wisdom cannot be imparted; that a man dies and his experience with him." And also that Society never advances; it is like a wave, its motion is only phenomenal; and that it is indifferent how a man lives, for "hell itself is not without its extreme satisfactions."

Very slender indeed are the hopes he gives us of a future superior culture of man; for man viewed as a natural product cannot cultivate himself, cannot lift himself by his own ears, any more than a tree can graft and prune itself, and divert large currents of sap into inferior branches out of their already predetermined channels. Then where shall we look? Will the presence of gold in California, the existence of chloroform, or railroads to the Pacific, or any other mere material change or agency bring us to the desired pitch of culture? Some superior foreign influence, an invading force of beings more exalted than ourselves might do, but this we need not expect as we are the highest in creation. Robert Owen, the English socialist, says "he can educate a tiger;" quite credible; but Robert cannot educate himself,—it needs a higher man to do that. It requires a person of more than ordinary authority to change the bent of my genius by saying, "you must not stick to mathematics so for your other faculties will not be developed—you will lose your geniality; you will appear to disadvantage in polite society, and nature will kill you for the work you are doing!" I would most likely answer, I shall do that which I like to do; and what I have an expectation of succeeding in, rather than cultivate feebler faculties that do not ask to be worked so much.

Let this cruel work-mistress, Nature, have the advantage of the division of labor as well as we; it does not seem particularly necessary for her to have all our powers equal; nor yet for human society, which is pleased rather with variety of character, than with equality of mind or body.—And furthermore, if nature were to add a hundred years to each of our lives, life would still be a short and poor affair, and I believe she could manage all she has to do quite well if a number of us were down in some of her upper strata.

As for having finer specimens of mankind than the earth has yet seen, we have no reason for expecting it; there have been heroes before Napoleon, or Wellington; Poets before Byron and Goethe; Saints, Statesmen, Sculptors, Musicians and Painters before which the notabilities of the present age are dwarfish. Even the very witches and red nosed wizards of the rapping circles are paltry and contemptible before the strange, weird grandeur of the Witch of Endor.

But this is no doubt the great age, when men, walking backward, crab-like, to Pagan times before the Christian era—quote Plato, and call it progress. And while they wear their fine spun philosophic theories of perfectability of the race and earthly felicity for the gigantic space of four score years! their works around them unrecognized this great Christianity with its teachings and catechisms, its bibles and missions.

And thro' its power millions have arrived at a state of culture worthy of the name, and died; and never peddled in Virginia, or travelled to Naples; nor had the misfortune to exhaust the eight or ten leading men in New York and find it after that "no better than a sucked orange."—And millions now live, loving God, kind parents, good citizens, not without geniality or politeness, who never had a bit of this Pagan philosophy to bewilder, or make egotists of them.

But this subject is too large for a newspaper. I have occupied this much space, not for Emmerson himself, he is above what I can give of praise or censure; but for the hundreds of christians who heard him and perhaps did not perceive the baneful seed wrapped up in such beautiful intellectual foldings. For Philosophy like his, like the poetry of Shelley, induces more unbelief, makes shipwreck of more souls than all the vulgar infidelity of scurrilous "Tom-Paine-ism." The one wears its appropriate garb, appears in appropriate quarters, pot houses, Sunday dancing Halls, perfumed with Lager bier; and is essentially low down; this the bulk of the self-respecting will avoid. The other appears in good apparel, is paid by societies that do not feel any particular responsibility about what they feed the public mind with—is educated and gifted, and like a fine piece of fruit whose rind is beautiful and fragrant, we are apt to swallow and die.

Journeyings in the North-West.

WABESHA PRAIRIE—alias WINONA, FILLMORE COUNTY, MINNESOTA TERRITORY, Feb. 8, 2 o'clock, P. M.

Messrs. Editors:

When I wrote you last from Sparta, I gave you the distance to that place—now I will post you up to this embryo city, upon Wabasha Prairie.—From Sparta to La Crossa, the distance by R. R. survey, 26 miles and not less than 30 to 35 via the road over hills and round them and through ravines. Sparta is in the valley of the La Crosse a splendid valley, of excellent farming land abundantly supplied with pure soft running water, supplied by the La Crosse river through the centre, which is supplied by rills and brooks coming down from the Cooleya upon each side; and these rills and brooks are well supplied with speckled trout. A finer farming and grazing country better supplied with water, can hardly be found on the globe than the La Crosse valley.

At La Crosse we put up at the Tallmadge House, a long frame building, 4 stories high, with basement, well kept. La Crosse contains about 140 houses and as they say about 1000 inhabitants. Here, the people, some of them, really expect to hear the whistle of the Locomotive coming up from your city, to scare the eagle from his eyrie, upon the high bluffs upon the banks of the Father of waters, within two years. But I think it is safe to say to them in the language of the song—"wait a little longer"; 200 miles of R. R., costing 5,000,000 of dollars, is no trifling undertaking. Property in La Crosse is very high—business lots from $500 to $1000 each. Building lots back $100 each—per acre ½ a mile back $50 and to $75, 1 mile back $25 to $30. These are the asking prices. There are two meeting Houses, Baptist and Methodist, one of which is used for a public school House. Father Branson was preaching and a good deal of interest was manifested at the Church. While at the Hotel, a cotillion party attracted another class.

From two members of the Bar I had an account of the first session at the court at La Crosse. It was in a Bar-room; a sheriff was appointed by the court, before which the bottle was called out. The clerk entered the date, day, and name of opening court—a candidate (who had never read a law book) was sworn in as "an Attorney and Counsellor of this court." He was thereupon called upon to "wet his commission" which he did "in open court," court all uniting in the "solemn service"—whereupon the court adjourned to next day to "the usual hour." Before adjournment a committee was appointed to examine another "candidate for admission to the Bar"—Judge G. was chairman; examination commenced. Have you read Blackstone? "no sir but I intend to do so." Have you read Kent's Commentaries? "no but I will borrow one." Have you read Chitty's Pleading? "no, but I can plead well." Have you read Gales' Forms? "Yes sir-ee thoroughly and know half of them by heart." Then you will do. The candidate was admitted and sworn in, and then treated the whole court.

The court then rose and continued for a day or two in a most interesting condition, and this was the first Court at La Crosse.

N. B.—I am happy to inform you that at the last session every member of the Court was perfectly sober.

From La Crosse to Mont Trempe-a-leau, 20 miles on the river, from thence here 10 more.—This is to be, as my landlord says, a great town, and it is beautifully situated on a prairie about 8 or 9 miles long, and from 1 to 2¾ miles wide, a fine landing place, and of the richest farming and stock countries back of it in all the valley of the father of waters.

Travelling upon the Mississippi in a cold day, wind blowing a gale in your face, carrying a cloud of snow with it, is a different affair from Railroad and Steamboat travel in spring or autumn. NOTES OF TRAVEL.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

The Prospect.

Buffalo, Feb. 14, '54.

Messrs. Editors:—The news of the morning, the arrival of the Africa, has but half transpired, yet enough to create a little sensation in the markets—a decline at Liverpool of 6d on flour and 3d on wheat, which, of course, surprises nobody here. This being the news in part, there can be no war news of moment by this arrival.

The feeling here in regard to produce is any thing else than buoyant on the two great staples of the west, Flour and Wheat; and in fact a tremendous, "over the left" sort of feeling has been apparent, for the last week. And this, with a very light stock in the market; not over 30,000 bbls. of flour and 25,000 bush. of wheat. Holders to day are rather inclined to sell, and the conviction seems to be that, whilst a general European war would sustain—probably somewhat advance present prices, it is still an exceedingly doubtful question whether that war comes off—and if it does not, that present prices must "tremble" considerably. Yours, E. H.

We have read a neat little pamphlet copy—printed at Starr's office—of a sermon preached by Rev. Dr. Arnett, the 5th inst., on the death of Miss Alathia Bobby, a member of the Young Ladies' Academy, of this city.—The sermon is beautifully written, and breathes the spirit of genuine, unaffected piety. For sale by Arnold & Wilson.—Free Democrat.

We were present at St. Paul's and heard the sermon alluded to above. The large church was crowded to its utmost capacity to listen to the eloquence of the gifted divine who delivered it. The subject was the administration of the communion of the church to a young girl, on her death bed at the time. Her cheerful piety—the christian resignation to her premature death were so forcibly and touchingly presented to the congregation as to leave scarcely a dry eye in the church. The closing part of the sermon, directed to Christian mothers, is worth the price of a dozen pamphlets, and should be read by every mother in the State. We have never heard a more eloquent preacher, minister of religion anywhere, or more calculated to impress upon the minds of a congregation the important truths of christianity, than the writer of this sermon, the Rev. W. W Arnett.

THE PHILADELPHIA MAYORALTY.—The office of Mayor of the consolidated city of Philadelphia is a post of great importance. He has over two thousand appointments to make. His salary is $4,000 a year. A large number of distinguished itizens are mentioned in connection with the omination for the office.

MATRIMONIAL WISHES.

A happy pair, in smart array,
By holy church united,
From London town, in open sleigh,
Set off, by love incited.

The day was dull as dull could be,
So (dreaming of no pun)
Quoth John, "I hope, my dear, that we May have a little sun."

To which his bride, with simple heart,
Replied (Yeas nature taught her)
"Well—I confess—for my own part,
I'd rather have a daughter!"

☞ The N. Y. Tribune of the 13th inst. says there is an increased demand for Railroad and other securities for England and the Continent, and we hear of some $300,000 or $400,000 bought within a few days. About $100,000 Government Stocks have also been picked up for a trust.

☞ The number of arrests for all offences, by the police department of New York city, during the six months ending the first inst, is officially stated to have been 22,236. Of these 3,898 were for intoxication, 2,729 for disorderly conduct, and 15 for murder.

COST OF A DAILY PAPER.—The Times and Transcript, of San Francisco, estimates the weekly cost of a daily paper at San Francisco at $2,700, or $140,000 per annum. There are some twelve of these daily newspapers and some ten weeklies; so that we may safely estimate the cost of San Francisco literature at $1,500,000 per annum.

The Rock River Valley Rail Road and the Proposed Land Grants.

From the Beloit (Rock Co.) Journal

R. R. V. U. R. R. It is some time since we have taken any notice of this road in our editorial columns. We have, indeed, never said very much concerning it, considering the pertinacity with which its bosom and threats have been thrown in our face, and its wonderful successes and negotiations paraded before the world in utter recklessness of truth. We never expected to say much more concerning it. But in connection with the subject of land grants in this State for railroad purposes, the project for which has been mainly if not solely urged at Washington by agents of that Company, and for its benefit, it is proper that the remarkable letter of A. Hyatt Smith to the Senate and House Committees of Public Lands, concerning this road and the subject of granting lands to aid in its construction, (a copy of which has fallen into our hands,) should be made the subject of a few remarks; and these remarks shall be limited chiefly to a summary of portions of the letter. From that letter we learn, (taking the statement of the Company for facts, (!)

1st. That $2,000,000 have been borrowed and already expended upon this road, in addition to $700,000 paid in upon stock.

2d, That most of the stock is owned by citizens of this state, and that therefore the principal portion of the $700,000 which has been paid in upon stock and expended has been raised within our own borders.

3d, That thirty miles of this road are now in operation, and the balance below the Illinois line will soon be finished.

4th, That the whole of the road between Janesville and Madison is under contract, a considerable part graded, and the balance will be done next fall; (an agreeable item of news, we presume, to our Madison friends and an assurance upon which they will, perhaps, very strongly rely.)

5th, That the counties of Rock and Dane exhibit an astonishing degree of progress in population and productiveness since 1845, a good proportion of which is attributable to the establishment of this road.

6th, That the Rock River Valley R. R. Co. was chartered especially to construct the stupendous works detailed in this letter, in the full confidence on the part of the State of Wisconsin and her citizens that the General Government would contribute promptly and liberally from the public lands to aid in their prosecution.

7th, That the State entertains and has not failed to manifest a deep solicitude in behalf of these works, has full confidence in the association which has undertaken them, (good heavens!) and has taken up memorial after memorial from her legislature, earnestly and confidently soliciting grants for the construction of railroads, and through the same body have indicated this road as their ultimate recipient.

8th, That it was in consequence of the reasonable and confident assurance that such grants should be promptly made, that the Company was able to borrow so much money; and that as the Company and the State had a right to expect such aid, a refusal at this stage would be taking such advantage of diligent enterprise and well grounded faith as would cause every American citizen to look with humiliation upon the acts of the national legislature.

9th, That the R. R. V. U. R. R. Co. is less a stock speculation than any railroad association west of the Alleghanies, it having been organized for the most patriotic purposes, and not as a fancy stock bubble for purposes of speculation; (though if the holders of stock could dispose of their certificates at 25 per cent. of their face, it would doubtless be decidedly the greatest stock speculation "west of the Alleghanies.")

10th, That the total amount of lands which they solicit is 3,356,140 acres, they very modestly and generously offering to forget the 264,960 acres which they should be entitled to on account of that portion of the road below the Illinois line.

11th, That the total length of their lines is 341 miles, and the cost $8,820,000; and that this cost is more than "four times the present value of the lands solicited," though those lands (so do their figures tally) at $1,25 per acre would amount to $4,195,175.

12th, and characteristically, That among other things a railroad is now in construction from Racine to Janesville, (!) and the word "Janesville" occurs far oftener than the name of any other town in the State or nation, being liberally sprinkled over almost every one of the twenty-three pages of which this pamphlet is composed.

We ask any man who knows any thing about this road, the circumstances connected with it, or the manner in which almost from the day of its inception it has been regarded by the State and people generally, to read over these statements carefully, and say if they are not among the most astonishing specimens of effrontery that ever mortal conceived. And yet this swindling, bankrupt Company through such unscrupulous and unqualified statements as these, and doubtless a liberal use of the funds they have diddled out of foreign capitalists, (which they had better employ towards the liquidation of debts due suffering contractors,) are beseiging Congress for a grant of lands in further speculations. Without that grant they are dead beyond the hope of resurrection. Their project else has swindled the last dupe and entrapped the last dollar, and the history of it when fully understood would exhibit one of the most astounding frauds which has ever disgraced the commercial annals of this country, we have no manner of doubt. It is pitiful to reflect upon the possibility of such an enormous amount of the people's domain falling into the hands of such a Company, who would be thus enabled to overbear by monopoly the prospects of other and honorable railroad enterprises which have been already sufficiently embarassed by the fact of being located in a community to which the odor of the transactions of the R. R. V. U. R. E. Co. so strongly and lamentably attaches.

Wisconsin asks for no grants. She asks to be let alone, and to let those enterprises which have been commenced, and which promise so auspiciously for both her profit and the profit of their proprietors, work their way out unembarrassed by the overshadowing influence and monopoly of any recipents of government patronage. Least of all does she ask for the donation of millions of acres to a company which has done more to lower her reputation and depreciate her good name and credit abroad than all other influences combined.

ENFORCING THE PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION.—A western Justice of the Peace ordered a witness to "come up and be sworn." He was informed that the person was deaf and dumb. I don't care, said the Judge, passionately, "whether he is or not—here is the Constitution of the United States before me; it guarantees to every man the right of speech, and so long as I have the honor of a seat on this bench it shall neither be violated or invaded. What the Constitution guarantees to a man he should have I reckon."

☞ "I remember," says Lord Eldon, "Mr Justice Gould trying a case at York, and when he had proceeded for about two hours, he observed, 'there are only eleven jurymen in the box; where is the twelfth?' 'Please you, my lord,' said on of the eleven, 'he is gone about some other business, but he has left his verdict with me!'"

☞ As for being much known by sight, and pointed out, I cannot comprehend the honor that lies withal; whatsoever it be, every mountebank has it more than the best doctor.—Cowley.

A NEW COMBINATION CAR-WHEEL.—The Syracuse (N. Y.) Chronicle, says that a new car-wheel, an importation from England, passed through that city, en route for the Great Western Railroad. The flange and hub are of iron, and the body is composed of elm wood, in sections of 1-8th of the circle each, bolted together, bringing the grain upon these sections as wedges. The wooden sections affording facilities for repairs, impossible to apply to the iron wheels.

City Matters.

POLICE COURT.—February 18.

The case of the State vs. Bryan McSweeny, charged with assault and battery upon Thomas Vaux on the 12th of February, was tried before a jury, who found the defendant guilty. The court inflicted a fine of twenty dollars and costs, amounting to thirty-one dollars and sixty two cents. The assault and battery was of an aggravated character and was made by striking with a life preserver and but for the blow being warded off by complainant's arm would most likely have terminated fatally.

VIOLATING THE WOOD ORDINANCE.—A complaint was sworn to and a warrant issued against a man named William Hellman, for having violated the 3d and 4th sections of "an ordinance to regulate the sale of hay, and the measuring and selling of fuel." The complaint was sworn to by W. R. Perry the, Inspector, and the warrant served by the city Marshal. It appeared from the statement of the Inspector, that the defendant had frequently had wood measured without being charged with the fees for measurement, the Inspector taking into consideration his family; he had this time brought in the wood and sold it without its being measured, for which the complaint was made.

The Marshal and Inspector threw off their fees as did also the court; the fine of one dollar was inflicted and this might have been saved, but for the obstinacy of the defendant, in refusing to comply with the ordinance.

CIRCUIT COURT—Milwaukee Co.

February Term, 1854.

JUDGE BUBBELL, PRESIDING.

February 18, 1854.

Hiram True vs. Lewis Worcester et als.—Action for Trespass—Jury tried. Doran & Smith for Plff, Watkins, Mariner & Coon for deft. Cause in progress.

Six more Indictments were found by the Grand Jury, three of which were for Larceny, and against Frederick Heucke (making five indictments against one man.) Two more indictments were found against Charles Werths for burglary and breaking shop and larceny therein. Another was against the boy Michael Conway, 14 years of age, for stealing from the person of Luke Weston on the 27th of January.

We understand, that on Friday at the request of the District Atty, the boy Conaway was visited in the prison, by the Under Sheriff, Mr. Connover, and asked if he had any desire to plead guilty to the indictment. He replid, "they might all go to —— together, he should stand his trial." The complainant in the case, lives some 90 miles from the city, which was the reason for asking him as to his plea before arrangement.

ARREST FOR SLANDER.—A man named Michael Hannahan was arrested on Friday night, on a capias, for slander. This is the same gentleman who was Plaintiff in a suit for obstructing a highway in Granville, (of which town he is chairman of Supervisors,) a short time ago.

THE THEATRE.—The Milwaukee Dramatic Company performed at Young's Hall on Saturday evening to a large audience. The plays were well chosen—Don Cesar de Bazan—and the laughable farce of the Local. Comic singing was also given and elicited much applause.

A Wholesome Thought.

"Bring hither the poor, the maimed, the halt, and the blind," if you would have them healed of their many infirmities. We boldly and fearlessly assert that the Mustang Liniment will positively cure Rheumatism. Let any who are afflicted with that most painful complaint try it thoroughly according to the directions, and if they are not cured, we will give them their money back. What more can we say? It will also cure the Piles. Thousands have tried it—and all were cured. Bruises, Sprains, Sores, or Eruptions fade away as if touched by the magician's wand. Its application to a Burn or Scald acts like 'oil upon the troubled waters.' The tempest of pain and agony is soon stilled, and the Patient is hushed to quiet and peaceful slumbers. 'There is a balm for every wound,' and that balm is the Mustang Liniment. Everybody that sells medicines keeps it for sale. 'Hold your Horses!' and if they are crippled, galled or sprained, use the Mustang Liniment.

PROSPECTUS OF

Thos. H. Benton's Great Work.

THIRTY YEAR'S VIEW, of the workings of the American Government. Published by D. APPLETON & Co, of New York, and sold exclusively by subscription.

During the last thirty years there has been no important public measure in which this active and distinguished statesman has not taken an able and decisive part, and been familiar with the motives, whether secret or public, which have urged forward or opposed each. He is therefore well qualified to write the history of this period.

This work is to be issued in two large 12mo. volumes, first of which will be published early in the year 1854, and will be brought down to the close of the administration of Gen. Jackson, and will thus form a complete work by itself, containing about 700 double columns, royal 8 vo pages, and a superbly engraved portrait of Senator Benton.

Price $2,50, payable on delivery of the book.

The book of subscription, a rather wide octavo sheets, can be found at the law office of Messrs. TUCKER & GARVEY; and the Agent will soon give an opportunity to persons desirous of subscribing to do so at their residence and places of business throughout this city and county. jan12

HUNTER'S CELEBRATED
Pulmonary Balsam or Cough Syrup,
PREPARED BY
CURTIS & PERKINS, DRUGGISTS,
BANGOR, MAINE.
Proof Positive—Skeptics Read—Testimony! Testimony!!
HAMPDEN, Feb. 24, 1846.
Messrs. J. Curtis, Jr., & Co.—GENTLEMEN,
I have a word to say to you, in favor of Hunter's Cough Syrup. I have the past year used in my practice, two dozen bottles of it, which I find of you, and every bottle has done good. For eight years past, I have been in the practice of Medicine, and I never have found any thing, so well calculated to operate so favorably in all diseases of the lungs as that is. I have known a hard, distressing cough, cured in forty-eight hours, by using (in broken doses) one bottle of it. One case here in particular, of a man who was thought to have a seated consumption, troubled with a hard distressing cough. I let him have one bottle, and he had two more of your Agent, Mr. Whitmore. After using the 3 bottles, he has become sound and now labors every day. He can be safely, and I have found Hunter's Cough Syrup was the means and only means of his cure. I have given it to infants, to children, to adults, and have the pleasure to inform you that it has done good in every case. I shall do all in my power to recommend it in the cases above named, as it is my power to recommend it in the cases above named, as it is not wholly for your benefit, but for the benefit of suffering humanity.
BENJAMIN L. POMEROY.
